JULY-2018

CHRISTIAN ED: 2018 REGION 5 MISSION TRIP— JUNE 24-30

By the time this newsletter reaches you, members from Region 5 Presbyterian churches will be preparing to leave for Camp Westminster in Roscommon, MI. Martha Ammann and two of her sons, Jared and Brandon, Marcia Brown, Portage Presbyterian Church Pastor Dave Hankins, and 7 others folks from the Portage church are traveling to a PC(USA) church camp on Higgins Lake near Roscommon, MI about 500 miles from Lodi. While spending the week at this camp, the group will be helping with maintenance jobs such as painting, staining, grounds keeping and trail maintenance. They will also be packaging meals for hungry families in the U.S. and abroad as part of the Kids Against Hunger program. In addition, the group will be putting together disaster kits of basic household items through Presbyterian Disaster Assistance and Church World Service.

THANK YOU

Thank you to all of you who helped out with the church garage sale which raised funds to send this team. And thank you for those who purchased Kwik Trip car wash cards. The group earned $720 by selling these cards!

Please be in prayer for the group as they venture off to experience God at work in new and different ways in their lives.

BIBLE STUDY

The weekly brown bag lunch Bible Study will not be meeting in the summer. Please join us when we resume on Wednesday, September 5 at 11:30.

Enjoy your summer!

STYROFOAM USAGE

In an effort to be more ecologically friendly, we are attempting to limit the amount of styrofoam used at the church. In a bit of wonderful synchronicity the GA has also recently pushed for decreased use of styrofoam nationwide. Help us go green!

My Friends,

There are times when our faith calls us out of our comfort zone and our habitual ways of being. It changes how we move and function in the world. Yet underlying all of this is an abiding truth. God loves you. God is with you. Who you are, as you are, is enough, and you matter.

Our faith informs and guides how we live and participate in the life of our community. Yet no party, program, or entity can lay claim to our faith. We do not have a claim on faith, but are rather claimed by our faith. It guides us, shapes our lives, informs our decisions.

This week I have been horrified to witness the punitive separation of children from their parents at our southern border. The thought of having my children taken away from me, in a place where I am powerless to follow or reclaim them is horrifying. Our scripture repeatedly calls for us to love and care for the stranger in our midst, to love our neighbor as ourselves, yet the separation of child from parent as a deterrent and bargaining chip is abhorrent and cruel. Today our faith calls us to speak against this cruelty. Today we remember the words of A.W. Stearne,

“Do not be daunted by the enormity of the world's grief. Do justly, now. Love mercy, now. Walk humbly, now. You are not obligated to complete the work, but neither are you free to abandon it.”

Today we remember that our faith has a claim on us. Today we remember that if what we do within the church walls does not impact who we are outside the church walls, we have missed the mark.

Perhaps like me, you have been wondering what you can do to speak up on behalf of these kids and their parents. You may have been questioning whether you are significant enough to make a difference, to have an impact. The vociferous media and sound bytes would suggest you are helpless and powerless to effect change, but this is not true.

Ground yourself in your faith and know that God put you here for a reason and will use you. Know that God is with you and that God's enduring love will always be with you. This is the deeper story that will sustain us. Who we are, and how we choose to live makes a difference. How we choose to use our voice, to witness to our faith, to love our neighbor, makes a difference. If you are ever tempted to think, “I'm too small, no one will listen to me,” remember how the whine of an unseen mosquito can keep you from sleep all night.

We are blessed that we might be a blessing. We are filled with the light of Christ that we might be a beacon on a hill. It is dismaying how fast and how far we have moved away from decency and morality, yet we must not give up hope. It is dismaying that it is being done in our name with our tax dollars. Yet, what is happening now is only part of the story. It is not the whole story. God holds the story securely. We can have faith in that and allow this to keep us rooted and grounded in God's love, all the while doing all that we can to love our neighbor and their children, as we do our own.

My friends, I urge you to keep a soft heart and not be hardened, to continue to love deeply and be a light in the dark, and I urge you to do something. Make a phone call, write a letter, make a donation, participate in a march, but do something. If we are silent in the face of such abuse, we will not escape the harm to our heart and soul. Do not let your heart be hardened, do not let yourself be numbed. Our faith lays this claim on us, that we would love our neighbor as ourself. You make a difference. You are here for a reason.

Grateful to serve with you,
Pastor Cyndi
